Article text

The Alphacool Eiszapfen 20mm L-connector G1/4" IT to G1/4" IT is a 90° elbow with 2 female threads that can be easily integrated into any water loop.

Integration made easy

The L-connector is very compact and can be integrated into any water circuit thanks to its 2 G1/4" female threads. It is simply screwed to the corresponding G1/4" connections at any position in the water loop.

Design

The threads are 5mm deep, allowing for the very compact design. This allows the L-connector to be installed in the system in a very space-saving manner.
