Traffic board Game to learn about road safety

In this entertaining and educational board game for the whole family, it is about getting the children safely through the traffic. On the road, there are many different questions and road signs, which invite to talk about road safety. The road signs have both good and serious consequences for the safe trip to school. Teach your child about traffic rules when cycling or walking around in traffic. Here the child can e.g. learn about the importance of road signs, traffic in traffic and traffic safety. To win the game, you must be the first to reach school safely. Suitable for children aged 5+ years
